

Tikanga Māori Mātāpono Tikanga Māori Principle

Manaakitanga is all about caring and bringing out the best in all you do. Here is a list to start you off with how you see tikanga practices at the painting area that are reflective of manaakitanga. Children should be able to demonstrate manaakitanga through:

- Sharing paints with friends.
- Helping younger tamariki to hang up their artwork.
- Reminding tamariki to get their apron on first.
- Helping kaiako bring out the paints to the table. (setting up the area).
- Asking friend(s) to pass you the paint when they have finished.
- Reminding each other to horoi ringaringa (was hands) when finished.
- Hanging up the apron when finished.
- Acknowledging
