

Tapatoru

Ako Professional Practice Framework

Professional values include:

Whanaungatanga – Relationships

» Foster meaningful and positive relationships and support systems.

Manaakitanga – Pastoral Care

» Maintain and promote the wellbeing of our learners, their communities and the land.

Wairuatanga – Wellbeing

» Foster a sense of wellbeing. Recognise and respect other belief systems.

Aroha – Compassion

» Treat others with compassion, respect and empathy.

Professional knowledge includes:

Kiko – Context

» Understand learning and teaching in Aotearoa New Zealand and the impact on own contexts, teaching or support.

Ahunga – Approaches

» Use approaches and concepts that contribute to learner-centred teaching.

Rauemi – Resources

» Use appropriate resources that enhance learning and teaching experiences.

Tikanga – Culture

» Work effectively with Māori, Pacific, youth and/or learners from diverse ethnic and/or other backgrounds.

Professional practice includes:

Whakahoahoa – Design

» Design and plan learning that strengthens learners' strategies and skills.

Tautoko – Support

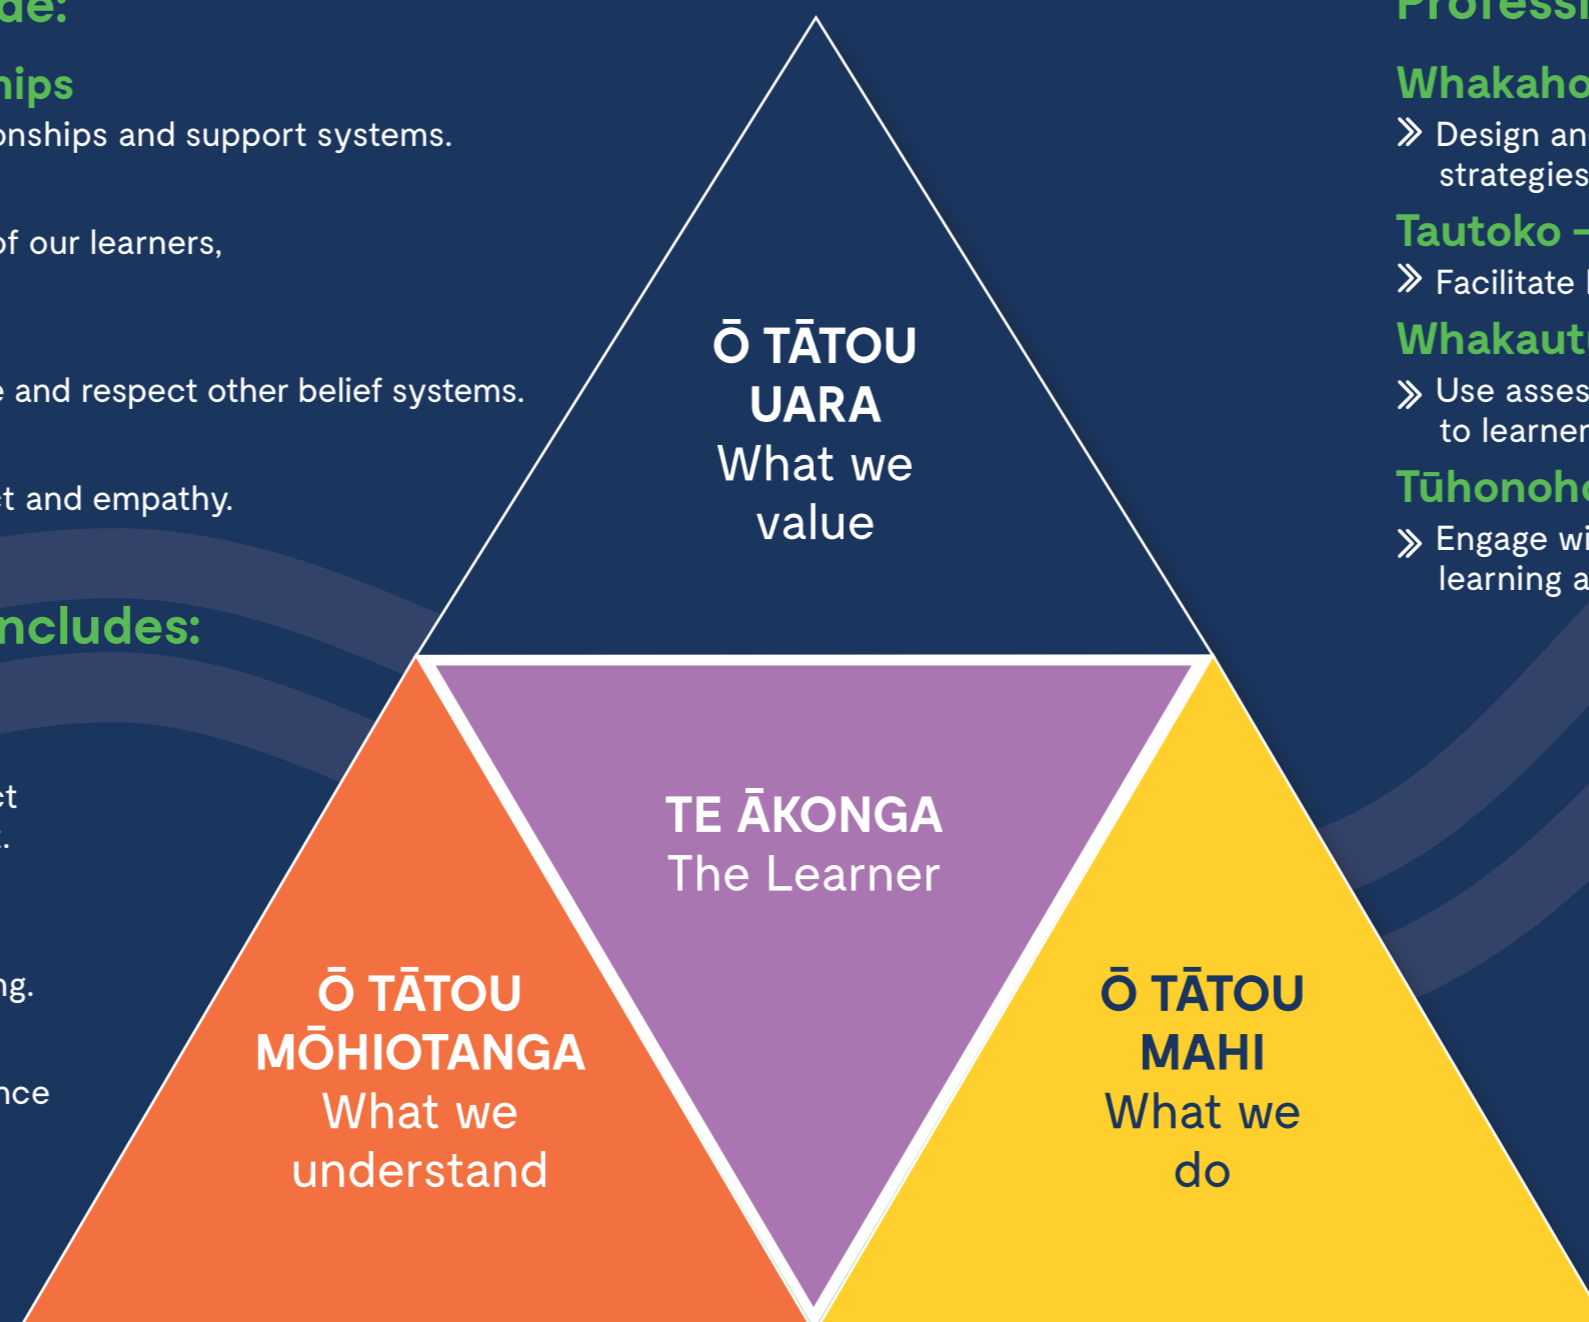

» Facilitate learning and/or support learners.

Whakautuutu – Give Feedback

» Use assessment as a learning tool and give feedback to learners.

Tūhonohono – Engage

» Engage with stakeholders and own professional learning and development.

Authors: Dr Joseph Te Rito and Graeme Smith

www.ako.ac.nz/tapatoru

Ako
AOTEAROA